

SAY ROOSEVELT WILL BE VICTOR IN NEW JERSEY

Vote Today Expected to Give Colonel Majority of Delegates Despite Split.

It's all over except the voting in New Jersey. The Presidential candidates have fired their final oratorical broadsides, the voters begin the march to the polls at 1 o'clock, and the entire country will wait with open ears tonight to hear the verdict from the last State to hold a Presidential primary.

The three-cornered fight for the twenty-eight New Jersey delegates to the Chicago convention is over, so far as oratory and fireworks are concerned. Colonel Roosevelt marched through lanes of cheering people in Hoboken last night, after he had addressed the Princeton students. The colonel will await the returns in the quietude of River Bay.

President Taft kept up his speech-making until noon today. The sound of his husky voice floated over the opening ballot box and as the voters went to the polls they heard a plea from the Chief Executive for the nation.

Mr. Taft will go to Philadelphia this afternoon and will start for Washington immediately. He addressed a large and gay throng on Young's million-dollar pier at Atlantic City last night. Senator La Follette also rounded out a week of rapid-fire oratory late yesterday, and he will view the result in New Jersey from afar today.

Both the Roosevelt and Taft managers confidently predicted victory as the polls opened today. Each side yields the other only a scattering delegate here and there, and the talk sometimes is of a "probable clean sweep."

Progressives Divided.
While Senator La Follette has made a strenuous campaign, and has followed closely in the wake of his two adversaries, it is not expected that his vote will be a considerable factor in the general result, although Mr. La Follette's campaign will, of necessity, divide the progressive vote. Senator La Follette has denounced both Mr. Taft and Colonel Roosevelt, while the two latter have paid most attention to each other, and have had little to say of Senator La Follette.

New Jersey has enjoyed the spectacular fight staged within her borders during the past week. No candidate could complain of the size of the crowds. In many towns and villages business has been at a practical standstill and politics has held undisputed sway. As the three candidates crossed and recrossed the State, like figures on a checker board, the voters have hardly had a breathing spell.

With the opening of the polls, however, the excitement of the campaign gradually died, and voters went to the polls this afternoon determined faces and minds fully made up. Before another sun beats upon the New Jersey marshes, on the "sneakers" and the commuters, the state will have sent either Roosevelt or Taft delegates to Chicago.

Roosevelt at Desk,
Feeling "Bully" Over
New Jersey Campaign

NEW YORK, May 28.—Colonel Roosevelt suspended activities for a little while today as campaigner and became contributing editor. He remained in New York last night following his whirlwind finish in New Jersey, and was at his desk early.

"I feel bully," declared the former President, "and could go through three or four more campaigns like that in New Jersey hands running."

Although he refused to make any predictions regarding the outcome of today's primaries in New Jersey, a number of his supporters declared that he was confident of gaining a wide majority of the twenty-eight delegates. Colonel Roosevelt will motor home to Otter Bay from his office this afternoon.

Colonel Is Satisfied With Campaign Which Ends in New Jersey

HOBOKEN, N. J., May 28.—The campaign into which Theodore Roosevelt plunged three months ago, when he announced his willingness to accept the Republican Presidential nomination, virtually came to an end last night. It ended with a booming welcome to the colonel in Hoboken, with the glare of red fire and the call of bugles, as he made his way through the streets lined with thousands who cheered him. It was the final rally of the New Jersey campaign.

From now on Colonel Roosevelt will direct his attention to the marshaling of his forces for the battle to be waged in the Chicago convention. He said that he would not go into the States which are yet to elect their delegates.

"This is the most remarkable ending to the most remarkable campaign I've ever taken part in," said Colonel Roosevelt last night, after he had witnessed the demonstration in his honor at Hoboken. "I have been in politics for thirty-three years, and I never before have felt such unadulterated satisfaction in any campaign as in this one."

Colonel Roosevelt's final appeal before the primary election in this State was in reply to the assertion that he was disloyal to the Republican party. He was attempting to work its ruin. He said he would appeal, if necessary, from the Republican national committee, to the people.

"The Republican party would have died of dry rot if we had not made this fight," he said in Hoboken.

Roosevelt Desires Hadley to Act as Temporary Chairman

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., May 28.—In a letter received by Gov. Herbert Hadley, Col. Theodore Roosevelt asked him to be temporary chairman of the Republican national convention, to be held in Chicago.

Mr. Hadley will accept if he believes he can best serve his faction of the party. It was announced, but he would greatly prefer that some other progressive be selected for the place. He told the colonel in a letter in answer to his request.

Governor Hadley was one of the eight governors who wrote to Colonel Roosevelt asking him to become a candidate for President before the colonel announced that he would accept.

Official Figures Show
Roosevelt Men Won
In Massachusetts

BOSTON, May 28.—In the Massachusetts primaries of last month Charles S. Easton, who headed the Roosevelt ticket, received 58,685 votes, defeating Senator W. Murray Crane, leader of the Taft ticket, by 5,551 votes, according to the official figures just published. The weakest Roosevelt delegate, had 54,400 votes.

Frank Seiberlich, whose name as a Taft supporter appeared on the ballot, and for whom many voted, as well as for eight Taft delegates, thereby invalidating their ballots, received 4,119 votes. The state will have sent either Roosevelt or Taft delegates to Chicago.

The Taft preferential vote was 54,722, and the Roosevelt, 53,520.

PARTY LEADERS HOLD MEETING IN NEW YORK

Roosevelt Managers Discuss
Program for Chicago Convention.

can hope to gain by their support of Root.

Whether this will be the program adopted by the Roosevelt forces is not determined. It is among the subjects under consideration, no doubt, at the New York conference of leaders today. Colonel Roosevelt, Chairman Dixon, National Committee Ward, of New York, and a number of prominent men from various parts of the country are gathered for general consideration of the strategy of the fight from this time forth.

Great injury has been done to Taft cause, in the opinion of Republican national leaders in Washington, by the extreme utterances of Manager McKinley, of the Taft campaign. Mr. McKinley has made it plain that he expects to rely on the most extreme machine tactics in the national committee, which he claims positively to control. His statements have been construed as nothing less than direct intimidation of purpose to start a riot, call in police and militia, and in general "rough house" the convention in case his faction doesn't have its way in all details.

Reaction Has Set In.
This sort of talk from McKinley, supplemented by the sinister threats of many reactionary leaders for months past, that they would rather see Roosevelt nominated and elected, has caused a sharp reaction. Already it is known that in several Northern States where delegations have been secured in whole or in part for Taft, the leaders among the Taft element are viewing the situation with utmost alarm. They don't want the party split, and they don't want it defeated. There is a ready apparent sharp split between the irreconcilables, the rule-or-ruin element of Roosevelt haters in Washington, and the more moderate conservatives, who while opposed to Roosevelt, are not prepared to acquiesce in a deliberate program of wreck, boil, and ruin.

This moderate element is beginning to assert itself, and the disfigurement of McKinley. Nothing has put more strength to these counsels of moderation than the disclosure of the McKinley plan to start a riot, call in police and militia, and in general "rough house" the convention in case his faction doesn't have its way in all details.

Story In a Nutshell.
That's the entire Republican story. The Republican bank has discovered that instead of being "busted," it has a huge array of the very assets that the political market is clamoring for; and the receivership at Chicago is going to be watched with the keenest concern.

Today will bring the last first-class State contest in New Jersey. The polls opened at 1 o'clock this afternoon and will close at 9 o'clock this evening. The Taft assumption of cheerfulness faded out with the delivery of the closing appeals to the voters, and it is conceded that Roosevelt will get the lion's share of the delegates. "A clean, complete sweep, sure," is the way it was put at Roosevelt headquarters today.

The Taft managers will not be much comforted by the Republican forces. They are planning their next stage of the fight. President Taft and his Congressional advisors will take up the same subject tonight or tomorrow, and with the removal of the two headquarters to Chicago, the real and immediate preliminaries to the convention will be on.

M. de W.: If you will shampoo occasionally with plain cantrox you will be delighted on how quickly your dull, brittle, unmanageable hair will become soft and lustrous. Just dissolve a teaspoonful cantrox in a cup hot water and your shampoo is ready. Rub briskly as you pour a little at a time on the head and it will dissolve every atom of dust, dandruff and excess oil. Rinsing leaves hair and scalp immaculately clean and the hair then dries quickly and evenly.

Grace T.: I would not advise taking "patent" medicine. Your "worn-out" feeling and lack of appetite indicate a sluggish, poison-laden condition of the blood, and the best and safest thing of which I know is an old-fashioned karsene tonic, made by dissolving 1/2 cupful alcohol in 1/2 pint water and adding 1 ounce karsene and hot water to make a quart. Take a tablespoonful before meals and in a short while the blood will be free from all poisons. Nothing can take the place of this simple karsene tonic as a body-builder and strength-giver for youth or old age.

Mayde: It would be a shame to hide the beauties of violet eyes behind glasses, and I truly believe you can avoid wearing them if you will use this strengthening eye-tonic. Into a pint of clear water dissolve an ounce crystals, then put 2 or 3 drops in each eye. This daily use of the eye-tonic reduces inflammation, overcomes the watery condition, and to weak, dull eyes gives strength and brilliancy. For removing foreign particles and taking out soreness the crysotes eye-tonic is unsurpassed.

Mr. T. S.: Cutting the hairs on the cheek only encourages them to grow thicker and heavier. Mix a little powdered talc and water and apply with hairy surface, then after 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and it will be left smooth, firm and hairless.

Test: The nightly application of pyroxin to eyebrows with finger-tips will encourage a thick, silken growth. Your stubby lashes can be made to grow long and curly if you apply pyroxin at bedtime with thumb and forefinger. Use care and don't get any pyroxin where no hair is wanted.

C. T.: No woman who prizes her complexion will think of choking the skin's ation, than the realization that Democrats are universally scared out of their boots by the prospect of Roosevelt's nomination. That consists of an unwilling tribute to the colonel's strength and availability, that can be matched by no excesses of enthusiasm on the part of his Republican supporters.

Conditions Are Reversed.
It is a revolution so startling as hardly to be recognized and estimated at its full value. Six months ago Democrats were supremely confident, and Republicans were frankly admitting that defeat was their allotted portion. There was no debating it; both sides accepted the situation that Taft would be nominated by the Republicans, and nobody cared whom the Democrats named, the result would be the same, anyhow.

"Anybody will beat Taft" was the universal statement of a universal belief.

Today the situation is completely reversed. Such a topsy-turvy change is without precedent. Democrats have taken over the Republican scare in full force. Republican leaders of the Taft cause are confident. "Nobody can beat Roosevelt, if he's nominated," is the unanimous statement of Taft supporters. The McKinley rule-or-wreck program, then, must deal with a party that is no longer reconciled to the inevitability of defeat. When there were no assets in sight, nobody was much worried about what sort of a management or program McKinley had squandered its funds, buying worthless chromos that represented impossible minutes, showing the bank being insolvent, there would be mighty little worry who should be appointed receiver if there was nothing to receive.

But let it be suddenly discovered that those shares represented control of a bonanza mine, and the creditors of the institution would be right busy making sure they got all that was coming to them.

TAFT CONFIDENT AS HE WINDS UP TOUR OF JERSEY

President Confers With Former Governor Murphy.
Speaks Today.

GLASSBORO, N. J., May 28.—President Taft today wound up his Jersey campaign with a final appeal to the voters to support his Administration and reject the third term doctrine of Theodore Roosevelt.

For the first time in history of America a President was seen campaigning only a few hours before there began the casting of ballots to determine the success or failure of his cause.

The President appeared confident as he began his final work to capture New Jersey's vote. He is apparently glad that his strenuous campaign is nearly over, and his smile was again in evidence as he addressed a large crowd of factory workers here.

That the confidence was due to a conference which he had held early this morning with former Governor Franklin Murphy was the belief of many who accompanied the President on his final whirl.

The confab set at rest rumors that the President had become lukewarm in his support of Mr. Taft.

The conference was held after midnight, one of the pavilions on the boardwalk at Atlantic City. The two men talked for more than an hour while Major Rhodes and Secret Service men kept watch a short distance away.

The meeting had apparently been prearranged, for the President took a walk after his speech at Atlantic City last night. Going along the shore, he finally entered the pavilion and there met the one-time governor.

After the conference the President sought his bed, and was up bright and early after a few hours' sleep. There was some delay in leaving Atlantic City, but the Presidential special was behind its schedule here, but the President took this good naturally.

Woodrow Wilson Gets Delegates From Texas

Houston, Tex., May 28.—With the stage set for the selection of a solid Texas delegation for Woodrow Wilson to the Baltimore convention, delegates to the Texas Democratic State convention gathered here today to elect eight delegates-at-large to the national convention, frame a platform, and elect a national committeeman. Richard May, of Navarro, was slated for temporary chairman, Cullen A. Thomas to be permanent chairman, and Gato Sells for national committeeman. Friends of Champ Clark fought to have him named the second choice.
